Bisong Gallery & Ms. T, request the honor of your Little Princess for Afternoon Tea. It's never too early to teach children etiquette, manners, and poise. A tea party is an excellent way of doing that. All women young, old and little girls love the idea of getting dressed up and drinking from fancy teacups, as we have seen in our favorite TV shows, films and books. Etiquette and Poise classes instills that vote of self confidence. Your little Princess will be introduced to afternoon of etiquette and manners that will benefit them for a lifetime.

Making A Difference Celebrating our royalty!

This is a great time to help our little girls become what GOD created them to be. As they discover their greatness we will continue to surround them with things that cultivate them. No longer will we allow society and social media to present the examples that they look up to. They will be the catalyst for change. With a rich culture and heritage they will become examples that others will admire and desire to be. Etiquette is our way of cultivating a poised, and polished young lady who shines brilliantly.

About High Tea
